RE: FOIA Request – Alaska Tribal Seat removal and preclusion/exclusion

Dear Mr. McLerran, Mr. Fields and Mr. Everett:

Alaska Inter-Tribal Council is requesting under FOIA, 5 USC 552 that you provide comprehensive documentation covering past and on-going activities to preclude, exclude, remove Alaska Inter-Tribal Council seat from the ARRT; from the draft Charter; from all committees; workgroups, from all sub-committees, see attached Memo from Nuka Research and Planning, LLC.

The significant and comprehensive documents requested include:

1. Who created the List of Alaska Regional Response Team Members? Include Emails, correspondence, phone calls, meeting notes/recaps or minutes, sign-in sheets
2. Who asked for NUKA RESEARCH to review RRT Charters and produce the attached memo? Include Emails, correspondence, phone calls, meeting notes/recaps or minutes, sign-in sheets
3. Who paid for the work of NUKA Research Memo? Include: emails, purchase work order, copy of check request and payment to NUKA RESEARCH.
4. Attached Memo re Draft Charter. Article IV. Who crafted this language and approved removing AI-TC seat? See page 5 of 15. Creating an Executive Secretariat list? Region X has the Makah sitting as the Tribal seat.
5. This statement also affects Article V. Membership. Who approved removing AI-TC from membership, provide emails, meeting notes/recaps and or minutes, sign in sheets.
6. Memo re Charter see Article VI. Meetings. Closing the doors on 'public' meetings. This inter-agency group is focused on closed door meetings. Where are the notes, recaps and or minutes of these meetings to have 'closed door' sessions? Who approved/each Agency on having closed door meetings.
7. What national security clearance matters are on any NCP, NRT, ARRT agenda?
8. No standing committees and the workgroups noted in the Charter? Each have different duties and assignments that should be covered in the charter. How is payment for these committees and workgroups work being paid if there is no reference to their makeup? The ARRT Co Chairs have noted the workgroups and committees work. Provide emails, correspondence setting up the committees and workgroups; what committees and workgroups are being paid or developing policy? Please provide membership discussions that exclude AITC seat on the ARRT and its committees and workgroups: email, letters, phone calls, notes/recaps and or minutes of conferences and meetings and sign in sheets.

9. Please provide a copy of the annual Budget, how all the Federal and State Agencies are paying for these meetings, emails, faxes, phone calls, reports, travel and per diem and a copy of final expenditures for the ARRT activities for each year 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013.
10. Correspondence, policies created, meetings, sign in sheets of meetings that limit/exclude/preclude the Tribal Designated entity and or Tribally Designated individual to be fully involved with full voting power in ARRT fully and participating on all policy development that has been taking place since 2008.
11. Please provide all correspondence, emails, notes/recaps and or minutes of meetings with the individual who is representing/protecting and promoting Tribal Governments of Alaska interests.

Alaska Inter-Tribal Council is a tribal consortium and AI-TC will share the information and data with the Tribal Governments of Alaska including the Tribes that sent in Resolutions designating AI-TC to sit on the ARRT and other allies and partners of AI-TC to raise education and awareness, build infrastructure and accountability of all agencies that are involved in aspects of our mission to protect and promote our rights to fishing, hunting, gathering, navigating, bartering and trading on all waters and lands that we have used and occupied since time immemorial. AI-TC hereby requests a waiver of the copying fees associated with removing the AI-TC seat and diminished participation on the ARRT.

Respectfully,

Delice Calcote
Executive Director
